

Anti-Strike Injunction Is Dissolved By Court Today

Pittsburgh, Sept. 26 (AP) — At the request of city officials, Allegheny county Common Pleas court today dissolved a stern anti-strike injunction — a principal bone of contention in Pittsburgh's paralyzing power strike.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 26 (AP) — A walk-out by street car operators started today in this strike-harassed steel capital, already in the grip of a power strike now in its third day.

Other strikes were threatening in apparent sympathy with the walk-out by the Power Workers' union.

The strike on the street car system of the Pittsburgh Railways company, main method of public transportation in the city, was called suddenly at 4 a. m., and left thousands of early morning riders without transportation. The company announced all cars had been withdrawn from service.

"Protective Measure"

Business Agent John T. Morgan of the AFL Amalgamated Association of Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees said the walkout of 3,000 trolley operators and service workers was a "protective measure" against threats of violence to men and equipment made by telephone and in person.

He declined to disclose the source of the threats. He said no extra protection would be asked to resume work but that he was hopeful that the situation would be worked out satisfactorily during the day.

Protest Meetings Held

The alleged threats were reported to have stemmed from the trolleys' use of "struck power" supplied by the Duquesne Light Company.

Both the Pittsburgh Railways company and the Duquesne Light company, whose production of electrical energy to an 817 square mile area has been reduced to 40 per cent by the power strike, are subsidiaries of the Philadelphia company.

National and city labor leaders were rallying to the support of the power workers in their fight against an anti-strike injunction handed down by the Allegheny Common Pleas Court. Leaders of CIO and AFL organizations in Pittsburgh with approximately 375,000 members called special protest meetings.

Normally the railways company serves about 1,000,000 riders daily with 950 cars. However, since the start of the power strike the number of cars has been reduced to 225 as a measure to conserve electricity.

Vote Against Offer

Meanwhile, the strike of the 3,500 power workers hit an impasse.

More than 2,100 union members voted better than four to one against considering any company offer to end the three-day old strike until the injunction is lifted.

The strike had made more than 36,500 idle—3,500 workers of the struck Duquesne Light Co., 8,000 sympathy strikers at the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp., and the Westinghouse Electric Corp., and over 25,000 others in scattered mills, mines, offices and shops.

Mueller Released

In a dramatic development, union president George L. Mueller, who on Tuesday had been given a year in jail for contempt of court, came before a three-man banc of the Allegheny county court, apologized for having called the court's temporary anti-strike injunction "just a scrap of paper," and was given his freedom for a few hours to attend a meeting of the union.

Mueller promised the court he would ask the 3,200 members of the Independent Association of Employees of the Duquesne Light Company to return to work.

Terminal Pay For Vets' Survivors

The heirs of GI's who have died since their discharge from service can obtain the terminal leave pay due the GI's under the new act, Roy A. Alexander, county director of veterans affairs announced today.

A special form, other than the one filled out by GI's to obtain the pay, must be used by heirs of those who have died since discharge and the forms are now available at Alexander's office in the Legion building, Baltimore street.

Heirs of GI's who died while in service are not eligible for the terminal pay because the gratuity pay given at the time of the soldier's death covered the terminal period, the director said.

OPENS MEDICAL OFFICE

Dr. S. A. Kirkpatrick has opened a medical office in the former Selen apartments, Lincolnway East, New Oxford. Dr. Kirkpatrick graduated from Gettysburg college in 1938 and from the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine in 1942. He served in the army medical corps for 38 months, 24 months of which were in the European theatre.

MANY COUNTY YOUTHS ENLIST FOR ARMY DUTY

Enlistments into the army from the Gettysburg recruiting office continued to soar this week as countians sought service before the GI Bill of Rights deadline next month.

Those who are in the army by October 5 will be covered by the GI Bill, which provides for free college education, guaranteed loans and other benefits. Sgt. Walter Stubbs, local recruiting officer, said today that those wishing to take advantage of the GI Bill should be in his office by Wednesday at the latest to be sure they can be enlisted in time to come under the provisions of the GI Bill.

Heading the list of 11 men who went to Harrisburg during the past several days for physical examination before entrance into the army was Clyde L. Little, 102 Baltimore street, who has been accepted for a three-year term with the signal corps with a staff sergeant's rating.

Made Perfect Score

Little, who is married and the father of two children, is the only man so far who has scored a 50, a perfect score, on the R-1 intelligence test given at the local recruiting office, Sergeant Stubbs said.

A former technical sergeant in the army, Little was discharged last October after serving overseas in the European Theater of Operations. He returns to service as a high speed radio operator, the same work he was doing while previously in service.

Two former York high school football players were also among the contingent sent from Gettysburg. Both were students at the college here and both signed for 18 months unassigned. The one youth was John C. Hampton, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hampton, Sr., York, and the other was Cleveland B. Snell, Jr., son of Mrs. Helen E. Snell, York. Both are 18 and graduates of York high school.

A number of Biglerville high school graduates were also among the men who enlisted in the army this week.

Ralph S. Sandoe, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Sandoe, Sr., Biglerville, has signed for an 18-months unassigned hitch in the service.

Other Countians

Fred W. Fraim, son of Mrs. Edith H. Fraim, Biglerville R. 2, has also signed for an 18-month unassigned term.

Frank Shemon, Aspers R. 1, another Biglerville grad, is another who signed for 18 months as did Donald G. Spangler, 17, son of Charles D. Spangler, Aspers R. 1.

Masons Honor Judge Sheely

Judge W. C. Sheely, of the Adams-Fulton courts, was among 206 prominent men from all over the country, including General Mark W. Clark and Governors Edward Martin, of Pennsylvania, and Charles M. Dale, of New Hampshire, who received the Masonic thirty-third degree at impressive, full-dress ceremonies in Pittsburgh Wednesday night.

Judge Sheely is the first Adams countian to be selected to receive this honor from the Masonic lodge.

The ceremonies brought to a close a five-day meeting attended by 2,000 thirty-third degree Masons. Among Pennsylvanians receiving degrees were: Chester Craig Sweesy, New Castle; Frank Cecil Dickson, Butler; Thomas Reese Shaeffer, Homer City; William Gale Rush, Galeton; Clinton Perry Lerch, DuBois, and Clarence George Krise, DuBois.

Gettysburg Featured In Magazine Of Sigma Chi, Founded Here By Dr. P. M. Bikle In 1881

The Magazine of Sigma Chi, national men's college fraternity, draws new attention to Gettysburg with its recent issue commemorating the 65th birthday of the magazine.

The Sigma Chi magazine made its debut in Gettysburg in April, 1881, and for two years was published at the J. E. Wible print shop on Carlisle street, which was also the home of The Gettysburg Times.

The cover of the July-August issue of the magazine is the famous cartoonist-artist Milton Caniff's brilliant conception of this print shop as the first copies of the fraternity magazine came off the press in that year.

The issue also marks the 25th year of service of the editor of the Magazine of Sigma Chi, Chester W. Cleveland, and contains a full-page reproduction of an oil portrait of the Rev. Dr. Charles R. Trowbridge, first Sigma Chi editor. The painting was presented by the members of Theta chapter of Gettysburg college to the general fraternity on the occasion of its 75th anniversary in 1938.

Founded By Dr. Bikle

In an article in the magazine entitled "Our 65th Birthday," Editor Cleveland writes that the first earnest advocate of a fraternity journal was Philip M. Bikle, Theta, Gettysburg, 1866, who was in his 90th year when he died on January 19, 1934. Dr. Bikle was the father of Philip R. Bikle, Gettysburg insurance man, former editor of The Times, and chapter advisor.

The magazine idea, however, did not "take hold" until 15 years after presentation of the plan by "Brother" Bikle at the fifth grand chapter, eastern session, at Pittsburgh in 1885. The more conservative delegates referred to it as "visionary," and too perilous for adoption.

But at the grand chapter meeting in Washington, D. C., in 1890, the magazine idea was given the "green light," and the enterprise was committed to Mr. Bikle's own chapter, Theta, at Gettysburg college.

Had 11 Editors

The first issue of The Sigma Chi appeared under date of April, 1881. Mr. Trowbridge, previously mentioned, was the editor of the new bi-monthly and William L. McPherson was its business manager. After publication of two volumes at Gettysburg, it was transferred to Hanover, Ind., and in 1884 to Chicago, where it has been published, except from 1898 to 1903, when it was issued from Albion, Mich.

During its 65-year existence, the magazine has had 11 editors, Dr. Trowbridge, who became a college president; William L. McPherson, famous as an editorial writer of the New York Herald Tribune; Walter L. Fischer, secretary of the interior in President Taft's cabinet; Charles Ailing; Frank Crozier, Newman Miller, who became directors of the University of Chicago Press; Fred Bates Johnson; Milton E. Robinson, Jr.; Byron D. Stokes, writer of the lyrics of "The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" and "The Fellowship Song of Sigma Chi"; Willard C. Teague, chief editorial writer and radio commentator of the Memphis Commercial Appeal and Mr. Cleveland, its present editor. Only Johnson, Stokes and Teague of the former editors are living.

Select First Editor

Mr. Cleveland quotes from Dr. Trowbridge's reminiscences, as follows:

"The writer well remembers, even at this far day, the surprise, not to say consternation, that was felt

DISTRICT VFW MEETING HERE; NAME STEWARD

At the regular meeting held Wednesday night at their home at 249 Carlisle street, the members of Gettysburg Post No. 15, Veterans of Foreign Wars were told by Commander William Eckenrode that a steward has been appointed for the post home and that effective immediately, the home will be open to members from 12 noon until 5:30 p. m. and from 6:30 until midnight.

The steward chosen is Clair E. Newman, of Gettysburg, a veteran of the 36th (Texas) Division who served in Italy, France and Germany.

Although the post home is already operating under established hours for the convenience of members, the official opening is being planned for Saturday, October 4.

The house committee met following the regular meeting to discuss plans for this opening.

21st District Encampment

It was also announced at the meeting that the Pennsylvania 21st District Veterans of Foreign Wars, comprising the counties of Adams, York and Franklin, will hold their encampment in Gettysburg on Sunday, October 13, at the local post home at 249 Carlisle street. A commander for the tri-county area will be elected. Those elected as delegates from the local post were John Knox, Glenn Raffensperger, George Fisel, Grover W. Ridler, Kermit W. Sterner, James Myers and Commander Eckenrode. Alternates chosen were Willard Welkert, Walter S. Swisher, Samuel Kessel, Edwin Taylor, John Hewitt, Raymond Strohm and Charles Smith.

October 1 is the beginning of the VFW year and Commander Eckenrode extended an invitation to all eligible men of Gettysburg and vicinity who desire to join the organization of overseas veterans and said an application card can be secured from any member or at the post home from Mr. Newman during the prevailing open hours.

15 New Members

At future meetings, refreshments will be served and the following committee was appointed to serve: Samuel Kessel, Willard Welkert, Clair Newman and John Knox.

New members admitted since August include Lawrence W. Gladhill, Bertram L. Larkin, Kenneth G. Taylor, George R. Ridinger, Daniel H. Gelman, Ernest Benson, Richard P. Plank, Charles E. Thomas, Edward A. Culp, James D. Reaver, Charles W. Mayhall, Jr., Fred P. Trimmer, Thomas M. Rider, Joseph McN. Musselman and Harry G. Troxell.

Here And There

Unless someone cared to delve back into the records to prove a point, the mere mention that Gettysburg college has a head football coach who has served one institution in the east longer than any other man in the profession would be the means of starting a good argument.

But there's the record to prove that Henry T. Bream holds seniority over such graybeards as Andy Kerr of Colgate, and Lou Little, of Columbia. True, his edge over these two is not more than two years, but he ranks as the No. 1 man.

That Gettysburg college has continued to keep Bream as its head coach year after year since 1927 is no mystery. Between 1927 and 1942, when football was dropped because of the war, Bream's teams won 76 times while losing 47 and tying 9. And in that period Coach Bream has had only four losing seasons. That's a record of which neither Little nor Kerr can boast.

Bream, it would seem, was destined to make good as a coach, for in his college days he was slightly less than terrific as an athlete. He managed to play regularly in football, basketball and baseball, winning letters in each sport for four years. He also served as captain in both football and basketball.

Gettysburg made the mistake of not signing him right away as head coach. Instead, they let Hen slip away and he accepted a coaching post at Phoenixville high school where he immediately posted winning records. Gettysburg quickly brought him back as freshman football coach in 1926 and a year later elevated him to the top job.

Under Bream, Gettysburg has dominated the Eastern Pennsylvania Collegiate Conference. The history of that association shows championship honors for the Bullets in 1927, 1928, 1929, 1930 and 1939. But that's not all. In 1932, 1933, 1934 and 1938 and 1941 the Bullets were co-champions.

Bream sends his 1946 team into action for the first time on Saturday when the Bullets clash with Lehigh at Bethlehem.

OPA CONSIDERS RENT CONTROLS IN THIS AREA

A mounting flood of complaints being received at the Adams county office of the OPA may lead in the near future to the formation of a rent control area in this community, a statement by an office spokesman disclosed today.

The district office of the OPA at Philadelphia has told local rationing officials that if there are sufficient well-founded complaints about excessive rents in and around Gettysburg, a rent control area will be instituted promptly.

Chief Clerk W. Clarence Nuss said that complaints about rents should be sent to the Philadelphia OPA District Office, Broad Street Station Building, Philadelphia 3, Pa. Complainants who report their protests to the county office in the Hotel Eberhart building are directed there to write the Philadelphia office.

Rents Doubled and Tripled

Mr. Nuss said this morning that a new surge of complaints on rent increases was being received at his office this week. An earlier peak occurred about two months ago.

Cases have been reported to the local office—and referred to Philadelphia—in which "rents have been doubled and tripled" in and near Gettysburg. He cited two cases in which one property owner had jumped the rent on one property from $17 to $35 a month and from $20 to $50 a month on another property.

In some cases, the rent increases have followed a change of ownership in the properties involved, the OPA clerk said, although there have been a number of instances reported "where the landlord has sharply increased rentals on short notice."

The OPA surveys here have failed to show wage increases in this area to justify any rent increases, he asserted. Adams is one of the few counties in the state that has never been in a rent control area. Surrounding counties—or at least their more populous sections—have been in rent control areas for some time.

D. N. WILLIAMS DIES WEDNESDAY

Daniel N. Williams, 47, York Springs R. 2, Huntingdon township, died Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Warner hospital from a complication of diseases. He had undergone an operation at the hospital some time ago and re-entered the hospital five days ago.

Mr. Williams was a retired ruffer in a steel mill at Harrison, N. J. He was a son of the late Thomas and Hannah (Williams) Williams. He moved with his family from Danville to his late home 14 months ago. The deceased was a member of the Washingtonville Lutheran church.

Surviving are his widow, Anna; four children, Ellen Jean, Alice, Daniel and George, all at home, one sister, Miss Letitia Williams, Providence, R. I., two brothers, Thomas, Newark, N. J., and Henry, Buffalo, N. Y.

Funeral services Saturday at 2 p. m. from the Pittenturf funeral home, York Springs, conducted by the Rev. Ralph Mckieley. Interment in the Heldersburg cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Friday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

To Tell How To Build Farm Ponds

Adams countians interested in creating farm ponds will have an opportunity Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock to learn more about the construction of the ponds at an educational meeting to be held in the Gettysburg high school agricultural department rooms by the county Agricultural Extension association.

J. R. Haswell, State College extension engineer, will be the speaker at the Tuesday evening session and will spend Tuesday and Wednesday visiting the farms of various persons in the county who have been seeking assistance in the construction of farm ponds. The ponds, it was pointed out, serve not only a place of growing fish, but also serve as a reservoir of water in case of fires, or for other water needs and can, if wished, be made into swimming pools.

PLAN TO MARRY

GAZELLE BOYS NOW TOTAL FIVE

Jerusalem, Sept. 26 (AP)—Gazelle boys—they eat grass, run 50 miles an hour and speak only the language of their foster parents—are enlivening this year's silly season in the Middle East.

First reported in Trans-Jordan six weeks ago, the gazelle boys now number five. Each story is a little better than the last previous one. The original report was that three hunters seeking the gazelle—antelope with large, friendly eyes—found a 14-year-old boy living with a herd. They gave chase in a car going 50 miles an hour, captured the boy and took him to a hospital where he would eat nothing but grass and mumbled inarticulately. The story was told in Palestine and Trans-Jordan bars and found its way into print.

Later it was learned the boy was the son of a Bedouin family living in the neighborhood and was mentally deficient. He is now in a hospital. He doesn't eat grass.

The other gazelle boys subsequently turned up in Trans-Jordan, Iraq, Syria and Lebanon. One, the wags say is being trained by oil companies to do a 50-mile-an-hour pipeline patrol. Another, according to the latest story, is being taught English by professors at the American university at Beyrouth so they can learn what the gazelles talk about besides love.

Represents County At Military Meet

Col. William G. Weaver, Baltimore street, of the Adjutant General Department reserve, is representing Adams county at a meeting in Harrisburg today of the advisory committee of the Harrisburg Military district which includes Adams county.

A decision will be made on what reserve units will be assigned various counties or districts for post-war organization.

Top-Of-The-World Flight Time Set

Honolulu, Sept. 26 (AP)—Col. C. S. Irvine, commander of the army's distance record seeking B-29, "Pac-ausian Dreamboat," today tentatively set 5:30 a. m. tomorrow, Honolulu time (11 a. m. EST) for the start of his top-of-the-world hop to Cairo, Egypt.

Irvine said, after checking the early weather report, that the 10,000-mile flight across Arctic regions would begin as indicated, "weather permitting."

The weather report indicated poor flying conditions over Iceland, and he wishes to give it "24 hours to get out of my way."

Meteorologists said they expected the weather to clear up within the next 24 hours to give the Dreamboat clear sailing on its long hop.

Carlisle Medic At Valley Forge

Phoenixville, Pa., Sept. 26 (AP)—Col. Rollin L. Bauchspies, former director of the Army Medical Department Extension school at Carlisle, Pa., has been appointed executive officer of the Valley Forge General Hospital.

A graduate of the East Mauch Chunk (Pa.) high school, Pennsylvania State college and the University of Pennsylvania Medical school, Col. Bauchspies commanded the 38th Evacuation hospital which went ashore D-Day in North Africa. He also made D-Day landings in Italy and southern France.

News Briefs

Seoul, Sept. 26 (AP)—A strike of 25,000 employees immobilized all operations of the government owned South Korea National Railway on Wednesday.

The workers demanded labor laws identical with those for factories in North Korea, salary increases and their two hop (1/12 pint) daily rice ration doubled. South Korea is administered by U. S. occupation officials; North Korea by Russians.

Nanking, Sept. 26 (AP)—Chinese Communists reiterated today that their peace negotiator would stay on the sidelines in Shanghai until a cease-fire order goes out in China's civil war and armistice talks are arranged.

Wang Ping-nan, Communist spokesman, told an interviewer that either the government or the United States negotiators must take the steps or Gen. Chou En-lai, head of the Communist delegation, would stay in Shanghai.

Farley Talks With Pope On Wednesday

Rome, Sept. 26 (AP)—James A. Farley, who saw Pope Pius XII yesterday, said today he had found the pontiff "thoroughly in accord with the firm American policy" propounded by Secretary of State James F. Byrnes at Paris.

The former Democratic party national chairman said he himself also was firmly behind "the administration's foreign policy and the manner in which Byrnes is carrying it out."

"Generally speaking," he added, "I think I express the attitude of the great majority of Americans."

The bride wore a light blue suit with black accessories, and wore a corsage of white roses.

The bride had as her attendant her sister, Mrs. Raymond Clingan. The best man was Melvin Zumbrum, brother of the groom.

The couple have gone to house-keeping in their newly-furnished home at 42½ Crouse Park, Littlestown.

Morehead-Tucker

Miss Marion V. Tucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie F. Tucker, Silver Run, and Charles M. Morehead, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Morehead, Sr., Littlestown, Pa., were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in St. Mary's Lutheran church Silver Run. The double ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Frederick R. Seibel.

Preceding the ceremony, the church organist Mrs. Emma Schaeffer, presented a short recital.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She had as her maid of honor, Miss Alma Morehead, sister of the groom. The best man was Lewis Stonelifer, Union Mills, and the ushers were Roy Snyder, Littlestown, and Leon Leppo, Silver Run.

A reception was held in the parish house for about 75 guests following the ceremony.

The couple left for a motor wedding trip to the New England states and into parts of Canada. They plan to be at home at the bride's parents about October 1.

Mr. Morehead served 37 months in the Army Air Corps, with 21 months spent in the Pacific theatre of operations.

DEATHS

Mrs. Crickton Lee Smith

Funeral services for Mrs. Crickton Lee Smith, 82, who died Tuesday at her home in St. Cloud, Fla., were held today in St. Cloud with interment there.

A native of Adams county she was born near Hampton, a daughter of the late Wesley and Hannah Reary. Her husband, the late Crickton Smith, who died about 38 years ago, was a son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Smith of Bendersville.

Surviving are the following children, Mrs. Ethel Saunderson, and Mrs. Mary Uhens, St. Cloud; Mrs. Stella Pipler, Tampa, Fla., and Arthur Smith, Plant City, Fla. Two grandchildren, two great grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Louis Minnich and Mrs. Charles Howe, both of Gettysburg, and a brother, Robert Reary, Reading, also survive.

Brough Rites Held

Funeral services for William E. Brough, who died at his home, Aspers R. 1, Saturday night, were held Wednesday afternoon at the Bendersville Lutheran church at 2 o'clock with further services at the graveside in the Biglerville cemetery. The Rev. Dr. O. D. Coble, Bendersville Lutheran pastor, officiated. The pallbearers were Glenn, Wendel, Wilmer and Robert Brough, Clyde McCauslin and Clare Routsong.

BULLETINS

Calif., this morning. First reports said four persons were dead. Union Pacific officers here said they learned only that the engine and three cars—presumably baggage or mail cars—were in the ditch. They had no reports of any dead.

Philadelphia, Sept. 26 (AP)—Wearing gas masks, firemen early today fought a three-hour battle against a stubborn fire which swept through tons of synthetic rubber and covered the surrounding Brewerytown area with an acrid pall of smoke and fumes.

Shields Named To State Committee

Adams County Prothonotary Arthur H. Shields has been named a member of the legislative committee of the Prothonotaries' and Clerks of Courts' association of Pennsylvania, according to a letter received by the local official from David P. King, York county prothonotary, chairman of the committee which includes 21 prothonotaries and clerks in the state.

The committee will meet in Harrisburg November 14, the letter stated, to draw up preliminary plans for seeking legislation affecting the clerks and prothonotaries.

TO ATTEND BANQUET

The Rev. Howard Schley Fox will give the invocation at the banquet at the Yorktown hotel, York, this evening by the Women's Guild of Mercersburg Synod of the Evangelical Reformed church. The principal address will be given by Mrs. Harper Sibley.

Littlestown

The Ladies' Aid society of Redeemer's Reformed church held their meeting on Tuesday evening in the social hall of the church. The meeting opened with the Apostle's creed. The scripture was read by the president, Mrs. Charles Hofe, followed by group singing. The pianist was Mrs. John LeGore. The president had charge of the business session at which time a letter of appreciation was read from Mrs. Arthur Leeming of the Hoffman orphanage thanking them for serving the meal at the anniversary. The meeting closed with hymn singing and the Lord's prayer. The guest package presented by Mrs. Hofe was won by Mrs. LeGore. There were eleven members present. The next meeting will be held October 8 in the social hall at which time The Life of King Solomon will be discussed.

Any member of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the American Legion who wishes to attend the four-county council meeting at the Legion Home, Chambersburg, October 3, is asked to notify the president, Mrs. James Fager, at her residence, Lombard street, no later than Monday.

Preparatory service and Holy Communion will be held in Grace Lutheran Church, Two Taverns, Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Sunday school will be held at 9 a. m.

pany to accept a new company offer, end their strike and return to work. The new offer, the company said, included a five per cent pay raise, which would have increased the average base pay from $1.18 to $1.24 an hour. The union demands 20 per cent, or a raise of $1.41 an hour.

The secret meeting of the union was held in Carnegie Hall, and Mueller attended, in custody of the union's attorney, Herman Lipsitz. Present also were the other nine members of the union's "strike committee." They, like Mueller, had promised the court they would ask the strikers to return to work.

But despite their appearance, the union voted 1,771 to 402 against considering any company offer until the anti-strike injunction, issued September 9 by Common Pleas Judge Walter P. Smart, is lifted.

Members of the court had awaited word from the meeting and a report from Mueller. When Mueller appeared before them, however, the judges merely announced adjournment of court until 8:30 a. m. (Eastern Standard Time) today and told Mueller he might remain in custody of his attorney overnight.

The 35-year-old union president walked out of the courtroom with a broad smile on his face.

Meanwhile, other union forces had been rallying in a broad front to join in the anti-injunction fight. At Harrisburg, James I. McDevitt, president of the AFL-Pennsylvania Federation of Labor, said the 450,000 members of his organization would join with the striking power workers in their fight against the injunction.

Former WAC Held For Stabbing Vet

Reno, Nev., Sept. 26 (AP)—A 30-year-old former WAC was held in the Washoe county jail today, charged with slaying William H. Appleton, 24-year-old navy veteran. Both formerly lived in Clifton, N. J. District Attorney Harold O. Taber filed a murder complaint against the woman—Mrs. Mary Drew—late yesterday and, after her arraignment before Justice of the Peace Harry Dunsen, her preliminary hearing was set for Oct. 1.

Mrs. Drew was arrested at a Reno hotel after Appleton, employed here as a truck driver, staggered from a room in a hotel, collapsed and died in a hallway.

Police Detective Gene Cowan said Appleton had been stabbed with a bayonet he had brought home from the Pacific as a war souvenir.

Scout Troop 77 To Receive Charter

Plans for a parents' Night and charter presentation program to be held this evening have been announced by Boy Scout Troop 77 of Mummaburg.

Present plans call for an opening exercise by the scouts, presentation of the charter, demonstration of scouting activities, a talk by Troop Committee chairman Walter Johns, group singing and a closing ceremony.

HOSPITAL REPORT

Caroline Smith, York street, was operated upon this morning for the removal of her tonsils.

Other admissions included Mrs. Irvin Bauerline, Taneytown R. 2; Dorie Herring, Fairfield; Mrs. Donald Morrison, East Berlin R. D., and William Rolfe, Camp Sharpe, John Frederick, Arendtsville, has been discharged.

MYSTERY BLAST

Atlanta, Sept. 26 (AP)—A terrific blast, which police said they believed was caused by dynamite, early today ripped off the fronts of four business establishments located on the edge of the downtown section. No one was injured.

Upper Communities

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tyson and son, Jack, of Gasport, New York, have concluded a visit with Mr. Tyson's mother, Mrs. Chester J. Tyson, Gardners R. D.

Mrs. Elias Hoffman, of Arendtsville; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoffman, of Hanover; Mr. and Mrs. Orville McBeth, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Taylor, Biglerville R. D., spent Sunday at Bedford with Mrs. Annie Hoffman and Dr. and Mrs. Roy Hoffman.

Brigadier General and Mrs. Joseph I. Martin have returned to Brook's Medical Center, San Antonio, Texas, after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Kane, Biglerville R. D. Their son and daughter-in-law, Captain and Mrs. George W. Martin, and son were also with the Kanes for the week. Mrs. Martin is the former Miss Ruby Kane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kane. They have returned to Chicago where Captain Martin is assigned to the dispensary. Both officers returned recently from duty in Tokyo, Japan.

John Royston, of Towson, Md., who was recently discharged from the Fort Howard Army Veterans' hospital in Baltimore, is spending some time with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hoke Slaybaugh, of Biglerville.

A total of $1,157.71 was added to the building fund of the Biglerville United Brethren church, the money having been received at the Rally Day services last Sunday. All services were well attended and a more than capacity house gathered for the special program presented Sunday evening.

Junior Walter, who was graduated from Biglerville high school in the spring, will enter Elizabethtown college, Elizabethtown, at the opening of the fall term.

Letterkenny Will Sell Surplus Items

The War Assets Administration "Site Sale" of government owned surplus property to be held at Letterkenny, will open October 2 when approximately $4,825,000 worth of common hardware and related items plus used post equipment will be placed on sale on a fixed price basis, according to an announcement by J. C. Richardson, acting field director for WAA.

The sale, Richardson stated, is in line with similar sales being held at sites all over the country to aid in the disposal of surplus stocks of government war supplies and pipe them into civilian commercial channels on the outside. These sales tie in closely with the national reconversion effort. Many of the items offered are in critical supply in civilian fields.

The first offering of the sale will be made to veterans for a period of seven days. In order to exercise their priority rights, veterans must have previously been certified to purchase the specific goods they desire. Following the veterans, subsequent offerings of several days each will be made to other priority groups, including the RFC, state and local governments, non-profit institutions, and then the sale will be thrown open to non-priority wholesalers and retailers.

State Road Maps Feature Gettysburg

The official 1946 Pennsylvania road map, issued by the state Department of Highways, gives Gettysburg and the battlefield a special section showing all details of roads, leading into the town and the various avenues on the battlefield.

The post office, court house, railway stations, seminary, college and other points of interest in the community are marked on the map devoted to Gettysburg as are the principal streets of the town.

Individual maps of only 29 of the cities are included in the individual section of maps in the folder, with Gettysburg among the group which includes such cities as Philadelphia, Harrisburg and Pittsburgh.

Local Student At Junior College

Ray O. Staley, son of Mrs. Anna Staley, 69 Stevens street, has been accepted for the fall semester at Williamsport Dickinson Junior college, Williamsport.

A graduate of Gettysburg high school, where he was active in dramatics and art, Staley will be a member of the largest freshman class in the history of the ninety-eight-year-old college.

Birth Announcements

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Bauerline, Taneytown R. 2, announce the birth of a daughter at the Warner hospital this morning.

A son was born at the Hanover hospital Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Jones, Littlestown R. D. 2.

A son was born at the Hanover hospital Wednesday to Tech. Sgt. and Mrs. John L. Trimmer, York Springs.

A daughter was born Tuesday at the Hanover hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Bollinger, New Oxford R. D. 2.

Arendtsville

Mrs. Nevin R. Frantz, Mrs. Marshall Longanecker, of the local Reformed church, and Miss Clara Myers, of Trinity-Benders church, Biglerville, are attending the Synodical meeting of the Women's Guild of the Mercersburg synod of the Reformed church held in York today and this evening.

Mrs. Bradford Peterson was hostess to the monthly meeting of the class of the Reformed Sunday school taught by Mrs. Harry Kline, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Lottie Stahl will entertain a number of friends at a brush demonstration at her home this evening.

been named camp bugler and the Rev. Floyd Carroll is arranging for the church service to be held Sunday morning at the camp site.

Saturday morning will be devoted mostly to setting up camp and inspections. After lunch at 12:30 p.m. the scouts will prepare demonstrations and their part in a campfire program Saturday night.

Camporee Schedule

The evening meal is set for 5:30 p.m. Saturday and a game period is listed from 7 to 8:30 p.m. when the campfire program begins. Taps are to be sounded at 10:30 o'clock Saturday night.

Reveille is set for 6:45 o'clock Sunday morning with mess call at 7:30. The scout church service is scheduled for 8:30 a.m. and the scouts will pack and prepare to leave at 9:15 a.m. The final inspection will be held at 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

Because the entire camporee is to be conducted on daylight saving time the scouts will gain an hour as soon as they leave the camp, Commissioner Cessna said today.

Asks Quick Probe Of Building Delays

Washington, Sept. 26 (AP)—Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) insisted today that the Senate War Investigating committee clean up quickly or postpone all pending cases in favor of a thorough inquiry into home building delays.

Ferguson said he would present his proposal to fellow committee members as they open two days of hearings today on the Wartime Canals Oil project, the return of surplus property from abroad, and the Inter-American highway through Central America.

The Michigan Senator told reporters he considers the Administration's Housing program "a fraud upon the American people" with "thousands" of housing experts studying and planning without achieving production.

He said the committee should put its entire staff to studying the housing situation—dropping all other investigation if necessary—in an effort to get rid of "Red Tape" and build actual living quarters.

Pennies Are Lethal Diet For Trained Seal

San Francisco, Sept. 26 (AP)—Oscar, the California Academy of Science's celebrated trained seal, has come to an untimely death.

Immediately after an autopsy yesterday, academy officials issued a plea to Golden Gate park visitors: "Don't toss pennies to the seals."

The autopsy disclosed that Oscar's stomach contained three pounds, 14 ounces of coins, including 50 pennies, 27 nickels, 8 dimes, a quarter, a Canadian penny, a street car token and an amusement token.

Academy scientists said it was the pennies that proved fatal. They included a number of wartime coins made of zinc, from which Oscar's gastric processes generated a lethal dose of zinc chloride.

Philly Housewives Get 'No Soap' Story

Philadelphia, Sept. 26 (AP)—It's "no soap" for Philadelphia housewives these days.

That's what grocers are telling the women when they ask for soap in any form.

"What we have would be just a drop in the scrub bucket," a spokesman for one of the large grocery chains said.

Trade sources said the current shortage is caused by scarcity of oils and fats and the new meat crisis. "It's pretty rough," said an OPA spokesman who declined use of his name. "And it looks as though it will stay that way for four to six months," he added.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Going Fishing?
Here's How!

To hear Willie Wells and Basil Strube arguing about trout fishing, you'd think it was more important than the atom bomb.

Willie favors dry flies, Basil pooh-poohs anything but wet flies. Willie swears by a Royal Coachman; Basil won't hear of anything but a Silver Doctor. And by the time it comes to steel rods versus bamboo rods... #1X&*!!

Each had used his favorite kind of fly, his favorite rod and his favorite place to cast. So over a friendly glass of beer, they allowed as how maybe they were both right... which is how so many arguments should end.

From where I sit, if we all respected one another's different opinions—whether about trout flies, or drinking beer, or voting, life would be a whole lot pleasanter.

Carlisle Here Friday For Maroons' First Loop Game

Back in the victory column for the first time in two years as the result of defeating York Catholic last week, the Gettysburg high Maroons are hopeful of making it two straight Friday evening when Carlisle high will be met in the opening Southern Pennsylvania conference game for each school.

The Maroons realize that in Carlisle they will be meeting one of the strongest teams on their schedule and have been working unusually hard in reaching top condition for the contest.

Coach Hendrickson's Green and White outfit is being picked by many to supplant Hershey high, 1945 champion, as the title-holders of the conference. Foundations for such predictions are based on the nine-lettermen in the Carlisle lineup.

All Veterans
The entire Carlisle backfield, headed by Captain Dave Shenk, left half, and Bobby Blosser, quarterback triple-threat star, are veterans. Black, right half, and Lowry, fullback, are also veterans.

On the line Burkholder, end; DeLancey, tackle; Lackey and Alspaugh, guards, and Madison, center, are letter winners of a year ago. Carlisle has played two games to date, losing an 18-7 verdict to the strong Harrisburg Catholic team two weeks ago while defeating Susquehanna Township 13-0 last Friday.

The visitors will be accompanied here by several hundred fans as well as the school band.

Lineup Intact
Coaches Forney and Shoemaker will send their squad through a light workout this afternoon as a final tune-up for the contest. Emphasis has been placed on better blocking and tackling during the week and the Maroon coaches feel improvement in that phase of the game will greatly enhance the team's chances of upsetting the favored Carlisle outfit.

No change is anticipated in the Maroon starting lineup and from that of last week.

Westerdahl and Sterner will be at ends; Shull and Hottle, tackles; Sheffer and Williams, guards; Cole, center; C. Rodgers, quarterback;

Johnny Witherow Recalled By Erie

Johnny Witherow, Gettysburg R. I., whose steady pitching was one of the important factors which led to the league championship for Springfield of the Ohio State League, has been recalled by Erie, of the Class C Middle Atlantic League. The Ohio State circuit is a Class D loop.

In a recent game Witherow pitched his team to an 11-6 victory over Middletown despite being tagged for a total of 18 safeties. He whiffed seven, walked four, hit one batsman and poked out a single and double in four official times at bat.

Eastern Loop Has Near Record Crowds

Williamsport, Pa., Sept. 26 (AP)—The second highest attendance record in the history of the eastern league was set this year, President Thomas H. Richardson announced today in releasing figures for the season just closed.

The eight club circuit played to 1,054,878 fans, including the 86,209 who saw the play-off games. The best previous mark was in 1939 when attendance figures reached 1,704,796.

Richardson said that flood waters that caused transfers of games scheduled in Williamsport and Elmira resulted in a possible loss of 40,000 potential customers which might have pushed the total figures to a new high for the league.

Scranton, the winner of the league pennant and also the play-off series for the president's trophy, topped the other seven clubs with a total attendance of 181,302.

Other attendance figures were: Albany, 166,252; Hartford, 140,240; Wilkes-Barre, 131,529; Elmira, 98,521; Utica, 93,822; Binghamton, 85,480; and Williamsport, 71,514.

Sharrah and Hershey, halfbacks, and J. Hess, fullback.

The kickoff will be at 8 o'clock. Gates to the field will be opened at 7 o'clock.

For the convenience of adult fans tickets will again be on sale Friday at the Peoples drug store on Baltimore street.

With a good break in the weather the crowd is expected to approach the 3,000 mark.

The third game of the conference season will be played Saturday afternoon when Hanover plays at Shippensburg. Last Saturday Hershey opened the defense of its 1945 title by lacing Shippensburg 33-6.

Other games of interest to local fans scheduled for Friday night are St. Francis Prep, Spring Grove, at Delone; Middletown at Hershey; Scotland at Mechanicsburg; Waynesboro at Martinsburg, Chambersburg plays at Stevens Trade Saturday afternoon.

BULLET-LEHIGH GRID TILT TO START AT 2 PM

Kickoff time for the Gettysburg-Lehigh football game at Bethlehem Saturday afternoon will be 2 o'clock, Daylight Saving Time.

Prof. C. E. Bilheimer, athletic director at Gettysburg college, said this morning the general admission price will be 80c for seats at one end zone of the field. Reserved seats may be purchased at the field for $1.50.

The Bullet squad will leave Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock and will be quartered in Bethlehem Friday night.

A light workout will be given the Bullets Friday morning as the final tune-up for the first game of the season.

Lehigh and Gettysburg have clashed on the gridiron 13 times since 1915. The Bullets have won seven, lost three while three ended in ties. The last game of the series was played in 1937 when the Breammen won a 19-6 verdict.

Saturday's tilt is expected to be a close affair the whole way. Lehigh is reported to have a husky and fast outfit with a number of veterans of former years. Both teams are expected to be in top shape for the game.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Sept. 26 (AP)—Look for something to pop in southern football before the season ends unless the boys get together and quit pitching verbal bean balls at each other. For instance, Sewanee, which backed out of Southeastern conference competition, comes out with a statement by President Alexander Guerry which said: "Colleges and universities, especially in the south, buy the best football material they can get." And goes on to say that for many years before the war Sewanee subsidized, too. . . . The comeback to that is that the conference openly approves subsidies within certain limits. . . . How about this crack from the Ole Miss publicity department after last Saturday's loss to Kentucky: "The Rebs' big mistake, it seems, was in not making use of Junior Hovious and Wobble Davidson, '41 seniors now on the coaching staff," and recalling Merle Hapes, '41 senior, and Ray Terrell, '41 junior, from the pro ranks. x x x By the rules the league has established as a guide, these ex-Rebs seem as eligible as the Cats' Ernie Allen."

SANDLOT STUFF
Des Moines, Iowa, which has harbored many big leaguers in the past, doesn't have a baseball park now, but the 40 and 8 club expects to have 20,000 fans out to see Bob Feller and his touring team there. . . . Here's how: The club "borrowed" Birdland park from the park board for a day. Then it borrowed several thousand knock-down bleachers from the Iowa State fair and more from Iowa State college. . . . These will surround the playing field and a snow fence will be erected to make it a "park" where tickets can be sold. . . . The profits from the venture will be used to build a real ball park in Des Moines.

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE
Harry Brecheen, whose 1-0 victory over the Cubs Monday kept the Cardinals in first place was just repeating his July 5 performance. He beat Chicago then, 1-0, in a duel with Claude Passeau and knocked in the only run himself. Holiday Season Of Jews Is Underway

Rosh Hashono, the Jewish New Year, was ushered in at sundown Wednesday evening marking the beginning of the High Holiday season which will be concluded by the Day of Atonement on October 5.

The beginning of the year 5707 (since the creation of the world) will be observed with traditional prayer, repentance, and the blowing of the ram's horn (Shofar). Special services will be held by the Hanover Hebrew congregation. Rabbi Kassel Abelson, is officiating assisted by Reverend Aaron Kirschbaum. Services started Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock and will continue Friday morning at 9 o'clock; Kol Nidre, Friday evening, October 4 at 8:30 o'clock and Saturday morning, October 5, at 9 o'clock.

Hanover Horses Boost Winnings

Bloomsburg, Pa., Sept. 26 (AP)—Hayes Hanover, owned by W. O. Wright of Federalburg, Md., and Nymph Hanover, owned by Mrs. Henrietta Miller of Hanover, Pa., have boosted their earnings above the $10,000 mark as the result of wins at the Bloomsburg fair.

Hayes Hanover won the two-year-old pace stakes yesterday in straight heats to capture $2,349.85 of the $4,572.50 purse, while Mrs. Miller's entry also scored on straight heats to win $2,872.35 of the $5,522.50 purse for the two-year old trot.

A record crowd of approximately 25,000 harness racing fans saw Hayes Hanover win the first heat in 2:11½ and the second in 2:10½. Nymph Hanover turned in a 2:15½ time for the first heat of the trot and 2:12½ for the second heat.

PHILS DEFEAT BROOKS; CARDS LOSE TO REDS

By JOE REICHLER

(Associated Press Sports Writer)
It is doubtful today if any major league baseball manager ever bowed out with more satisfaction than William B. (Wilkinsburg Bill) McKeehle, erstwhile boss of the Cincinnati Reds.

McKeehle managed his last game for the Reds last night. He was "fired" three days ago. His final act as the Redleg boss was to mastermind his hirings to a 6-0 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals—an act which might cause the Brooklyn Dodgers—a team bill admits he dislikes—to nose out the club he formerly managed for the national league flag.

McKeehle knew full well that the Dodgers, whom earlier in the season he had accused of "dirty playing" against his Reds, had lost, 11-9, to the Philadelphia Phillies. A St. Louis victory would just about seal Brooklyn's pennant hopes as it would give the Cards a two-game advantage with only 3 games left.

Walters Superb
He nominated Sucky Walters, always a tough cookie for the Cards, to pitch. Walters pitched one of the finest games of the season to blank the birds with seven hits.

The defeat left the Cards still one game ahead of the Dodgers. Brooklyn, showing signs of cracking under the terrific strain of chasing the Cardinals, blew a three-run lead in the ninth when the Phils came up with five runs to win their 11-9 thriller. Altogether the Dodgers used eight pitchers to set a new league record.

Scoring five runs in the first innings, the Boston Braves doubleheaded the Cubs for third place by defeating the New York Giants 6-5. The Cubs lost a 16-inning game to Pittsburgh by the same score when Billy Cox singled in Lee Handley.

Ralph Kiner took over the national league home run leadership with his 23rd home run. Bobby Feller fanned 10 to boost his season's strikeout total to 337, only six short of Rube Waddell's listed record. However, Feller, once again received poor hitting support from his mates and dropped a 4-1 decision to the Chicago White Sox.

Despite Hank Greenberg's 42nd home run, the Detroit Tigers were beaten by the St. Louis Browns, 8-7. Joe Dobson pitched the American league champion Boston Red Sox to victory 5-2 over the New York Yankees.

The Athletics executed a triple play but lost a doubleheader to Washington 6-3 and 7-4.

ALARMING
Hammond, Ind., (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Sharp, caretakers at the Black Oak fire station, are shopping around for a new bed.

During housecleaning the Sharps parked their bedstead on the rear of a fire truck. A few minutes later the truck went out on an alarm—with the bed—and came back without it.

Sharp retraced the route but couldn't find it.

CANCEL FLIGHT TO ALLENTOWN FOR GRID GAME

By TOM SHRIVER

Harrisburg, Sept. 26 (AP)—Plans to fly the Erie Strong Vincent football team to Allentown for their inter-sectional clash with coach Cronk's Canaries were cancelled at the last minute and the Colonels left today by rail for the week-end's feature contest.

The Erie eleven comes east after two early season setbacks at the hands of Bradford and Sharpsville, but their followers are confident they will hold their own with Allentown tomorrow night at Coffield stadium.

Meanwhile Kulpmont, after making it 24 straight in a postponed game on Monday night, swings back into action tonight against Ashland with high hopes of extending the streak.

Minersville, serious contender for Kulpmont's eastern conference crown, will journey to Coaldale for another feature game tonight. Under their new coach Jack Lewis, who led Curwensville to ten straight last year, the Miners are unbeaten and have rolled up impressive scores on Cass Township and McAdoo.

Mt. Carmel Township plays at Frackville in another eastern test while Har Brack, triumphant in the first three starts, including a win over Sharon, entertains Butler.

Other Big Tilt
Sharing interest with the Allentown-Strong Vincent game tomorrow will be a clash of unbeaten rivals as Franklin invades Meadville.

Huntingdon, seeking its 18th straight, meets Tyrone in a western conference fray, with State College at Clearfield; Conemaugh Township at Ebensburg; Phillipsburg at Hollidaysburg; Mt. Union at Lewistown; and Meyersdale at Shade Township in other conference tilts.

Bedford, with a record of 18 consecutive wins, gets a real test Saturday against unbeaten Westmont.

Eastern headliners find Southern High of Philadelphia at Bethlehem; Ben Franklin at Reading; Sunbury at Steelton for a veteran's homecoming game; Lebanon favored to win at John Harris; William Penn invading Shamokin; Williamsport journeying to Hazleton; and Scranton Central crossing the border to play at Elmira, N. Y.

Dodgers Present Cruiser To Rickey

Brooklyn, Sept. 26 (AP)—Just before they went out and lost a ball game to the Phillies that hurt pennant chances, the Brooklyn Dodgers yesterday made a surprise gift of a $5,200 cabin cruiser to Branch Rickey, president of the club.

The sleek 30-foot boat was taken on the field on a trailer and parked near home plate. Rickey, escorted on the field by Manager Leo Durocher without knowing what was to take place, was left practically speechless at the presentation. Rickey recently presented most of the Dodgers with a $1,700 automobile to show his appreciation for their pennant fight.

Strike's End Near For Frick Company

Waynesboro, Pa., Sept. 26 (AP)—The end of a 112-day strike at the Frick company, manufacturers of refrigeration and agricultural implements, appeared near today following ratification of a company-offered contract by Local 53, United Auto Workers (CIO).

F. L. Innis, international representative of the UAW, said the local ratified the contract last night and authorized its committee to sign the document which includes a union demand for an 18-cent hourly wage increase, plant-wide seniority, union security and paid vacations. However, Innis said, it does not include the union's demand for a closed shop.

If the contract is signed today, Innis said, the 800 idle workers will return Monday.

Plan Huge New Telephone Union

Washington, Sept. 26 (AP)—Plans are being perfected today to scrap the National Federation of Telephone Workers (NFTW) and replace it with a tight national union of unprecedented scope within the nation's communications industry.

Final action on the proposal will be taken at a special NFTW convention in Denver November 4 to 16. The new organization probably will be known as the Communications Workers of America.

The NFTW, a federation of 47 independent unions which claim a combined membership of 230,000 workers in various branches of the telephone industry, authorized the change-over in principle last June. That convention also decided against joining either the AFL or the CIO.

NFTW President Joseph A. Beirne said today the task of "capturing the language" by which the conversion to a national union is to be accomplished has been delegated to committees. These have virtually completed their work, he added in an interview.

West Coast Ship Operators Decline

(By The Associated Press)
Pacific coast ship operators have declined an invitation from Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach to attend a maritime labor peace conference tomorrow in Washington designed to head off a nation-wide strike by ship engineers.

The new strike threat to the nation's still-groggy waterfront comes this time from the CIO Marine Engineers Beneficial Association, whose 15,000 members man the engine rooms of virtually all the ships in the American merchant marine.

Their leaders now are counting a nation-wide strike authorization vote, with first returns showing heavy sentiment in favor of a walk-out next Monday unless ship operators grant the men a 35 per cent wage boost.

Union leaders already have agreed to meeting with representatives of the shipping companies on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts in Schwellenbach's offices.

No Progress With Mack Plant Strike

Washington, Sept. 26 (AP)—Efforts to settle the five-month strike of 6,700 employees in Mack Manufacturing Corporation plants at Plainfield and New Brunswick, N. J., and Allentown, Pa., made "no progress," union and management officials reported after meeting with government conciliators.

None of the issues have been settled, Charles Ruff, corporation president, and Walter Reuther, head of the CIO United Automobile Workers, said. Yesterday's meetings were "exploratory," Reuther said. Ruff said both sides had been close to agreement unofficially a month ago but they were now in dispute over what had been agreed upon at that time.

Production has been halted at the three plants by the dispute in which the union is demanding 18½ cents an hour wage increase, a union shop, six paid holidays, and vacation and insurance benefits.

KILLED BY ROCKS
DuBois, Pa., Sept. 26 (AP)—Injuries received in a rockfall at the Westville mine of the Castle Shannon Coal Co., proved fatal yesterday to David Wharton, 52, in a DuBois hospital.

Today's Talk

RE-MAKERS

The most outstanding thing about any person is his personality. Take that away from him and he is just another human being, walking around and trying to get on the best that he can. But the person with a personality—a something that is his alone, inborn, and unchangeable, and in fact unique—is the person that people notice, like to know, and like to choose as a companion.

People with an attractive personality stand out. They are entities. Try to make them over, and they immediately revolt—for they are what they are, and they know it! They are people of will and character.

What a job it would have been to try and re-make folks like Washington, Lincoln, Lafayette Hearn, Wendell Willkie, Thoreau, or Ralph Waldo Emerson! They stood out because of what they were, as all personalities do.

The late Al Smith had a great personality. He was known and far and wide as the man with the Brown Derby and the big Cigar—but they were only accessories. They were emphasized because of their popular glamor, for attached to anyone without a personality they would not have been noticed, or commented upon, but Al Smith had character, ideas, a brilliant mind, and he was a "square shooter," as they say about a genuine man. No one could re-make a man like Al Smith.

One of the serious, harassing things about family life, is where the husband tries to re-make his wife, or the wife tries to re-make her husband. They should take each other as they are—for each is a separate and distinct personality. The happy families are where this fact is respected.

Dressing up a man, or woman, to suit your taste, doesn't change them one iota. Better leave to each his or her own tastes and desires. Your example, alone might help to change some of the irritating things about the one you would like to change!

We cannot re-make people. But we can help to inspire them to better thinking, better decisions, help to make them more tolerant, more considerate, and more companionable. That is a task worthy of us all.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "One Faith."

THINGS TO BE
The future holds the songs unsung
And all the books unpenned,
The deeds of all the valiant young
Which will in triumph end.

Great dramas, twenty years away.
Still written are to be.
For some great artist, young today,
Wait landscapes he will see.

The work of men is far from done.
Still hidden from their view
Are glorious goals that will be won
When youth comes driving through.

Go forward, youth, with hearts elate,
Undaunted, undismayed,
Unlimited the things that wait
The day they will be made.

GREEKS READY TO WELCOME KING'S RETURN

By L. S. CHAKALES

Athens, Sept. 26 (AP)—The Greek movement completed today its plans for welcoming King George II back to his throne despite fierce border fighting and civil strife in northern Greece which Premier Constantine Tsaldaris says has reached the magnitude of war.

Athens will close down completely Saturday morning for the king's reception and police announced that all permits for carrying arms have been suspended.

Police said persons lining the route of the parade marking the monarch's return to Greece after five years of exile would not be permitted to circulate and that any person was liable to search.

Take Precautions

All persons were forbidden to watch the parade from rooftops or terraces for a depth of about 100 yards from the route of march, which will begin at Faleron Bay and continue to the Greek cathedral in the heart of Athens.

The king was to arrive at an airport on the Peloponnese and then board a destroyer for the journey to Piraeus, the port of Athens.

(In London, a source close to the king, summoned home by a recent plebiscite, said the monarch's return was expected to stabilize the tense situation in Greece. He was expected to depart for Greece either today or tomorrow.)

Greek army corps, meanwhile, were conducting virtual military operations to put down the rebellious opposition in Thessaly and Macedonia, the major trouble spots, but although an estimated 30,000 British troops were dispersed in those areas there was no indication that they were involved in the fighting.

Blame Foreigners

Tsaldaris yesterday blamed "foreign influences" for the fighting in Greece, commenting that the disorders were "for the benefit of those who aim to take advantage of our troubles with a view of securing an outlet in the Aegean."

(A Greek embassy spokesman in London said the fighting in Greece was "an invasion by subversive elements from Albania and Yugoslavia with the connivance of the two governments." Other Greek sources said Albania and Yugoslavia were arming the rebels.

(An official Yugoslav source in Belgrade said last night the reports that Yugoslavia was supplying arms to the rebels resulted from a "reactionary" Greek press campaign aimed at diverting responsibility for terrorism in Greece.)

Crawford County Fair Being Held

Meadville, Pa., Sept. 26 (AP)—The Crawford County Fair—being held here for the first time in 14 years—drew an attendance of 10,000 on its opening day yesterday. Horse races today and tomorrow were expected by fair officials to draw even larger crowds. The program concludes Saturday.

The fair was discontinued after the American Viscose Corporation built its plant on the old fair grounds, which were once a popular race track.

PICKETS FORM IN HOLLYWOOD

Hollywood, Sept. 26 (AP)—Pickets began gathering at major movie studios today as another AFL jurisdictional dispute called out thousands of worker-members of the conference of studio unions.

There were no immediate reports of violence at any of the seven studios where the CSU had ordered pickets.

Several actors, including Robert Preston and Allen Jenkins, were seen entering Paramount's gates before picket lines were established at 5 a. m. Others were reported to have spent the night on the lot, where mattresses and canned foods previously had been stored.

The bulk of the early picketing force appeared at Warner Brothers, scene of the bloodiest rioting in last year's strike, and at Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Several dozen police officers were on hand.

The CSU's position had the support of President William Green of the American Federation of Labor.

Some 6,500 workers and their wives loudly cheered CSU Chief Herbert Sorrell as he told a mass meeting "Well, here we go again." Sorrell led last year's seven-month movie strike involving the same issue—whether CSU-affiliated carpenters or set erectors belonging to the AFL International Alliance of Theatrical Stage employees shall construct movie sets.

H. F. MILANS DIES

Chicago, Sept. 26 (AP)—Henry F. Milans, 85, former New York newspaper editor and in recent years a lecturer and writer for the Salvation Army, died yesterday in the Salvation Army Convalescent Home. STATE FAILS TO DEMOCRATS AT BUY ELECTRICAL ROLL CALL UNIT

Harrisburg, Sept. 26 (AP)—The state House of Representatives, when it convenes again next January, will still vote in the traditional way by voice instead of by the new electrical roll call system authorized at its last session.

"It is physically impossible to install an electrical system in the time remaining," explained Frank E. Hoffman, deputy secretary of property and supplies today. "It would take four or five months to set up and time after to test it properly."

The 1945 Legislature appropriated $75,000 for the installation of the electrical system, which its sponsors said would greatly shorten the time required to enact legislation and at the same time eliminate the possibility of errors in vote tabulation.

Bids 'Too High'

At present, members vote by calling "aye" or "no" with roll call clerks recording the tally on official sheets. With an electrical system, on the other hand, members would push a button which would flash their votes on a board erected at the front of the Legislative chamber.

Hoffman said no new proposals for installation of the system are pending since the department called for and rejected bids on three separate occasions because "they were too high."

He said one bidder, whose offer was less than the $75,000 allocated, proposed to do the work through sub-contractors whom, he said, did

STATE FAILS TO DEMOCRATS AT CAPITAL RALLY

Harrisburg, Sept. 26 (AP)—The Democratic party is fighting for the same cause today that makes the world remember Franklin Delano Roosevelt—for the continuing progress of the common man—Gov. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma declared.

"He was sustained in that fight by the most magnificent faith that any leader ever had in the righteousness of the cause he led," Kerr said last night at a campaign dinner attended by central Pennsylvania Democrats.

"We too can be sustained by the same unflinching faith, and surge forward with the same blazing courage," he added.

Kerr declared that "whatever fault you may find" with President Truman, his "most prejudiced enemies cannot accuse him" or the late President Roosevelt "of having no program, of doing nothing."

Speaking at the same rally John S. Rice, Democratic candidate for governor, said the state-wide top candidates "have hardly mentioned the Republican record in office, for the very good reason that they can't point to it with pride on the one hand, or defend it on the other."

He predicted that the western Pennsylvania industrial areas would go Democratic, that Philadelphia would come through "with a comfortable Democratic majority" not meet the department's qualifications.

"We could not take a chance on having the members' desks damaged in making the installation," Hoffman explained.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up at night. Frequent or early passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 45 years. Doan's gives happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

New York, Sept. 26 (AP)—First performance of five new songs inspired by the career of Anna Zenger, words and music by Kent Cooper, who composes as a hobby, is announced for the broadcast of Highways in Melody, directed by Paul Lavalie, at 8 p. m. Friday, October 18, on NBC.

Lyrics are from Cooper's book, "Anna Zenger: Mother of Freedom," a novelized biography of America's first woman newspaper publisher.

The songs are: "In Freedom's Cause," an election song; "You'll Know It's Love," Anna Zenger's love song; "There Was A King," children's song; "The Magic Of The Violin," and "To You, Fair Ladies, Now On Land," song of the grand ball adapted from a seventeenth century sea song.

GREEK STRIFE GROWING PERIL TO WORLD PEACE

By GLENN BABB
(AP Foreign News Analyst)

In Greece there is a ready made opportunity for Joseph Stalin to support with action his declaration that he believes unconditionally in "the possibility of a friendly and lasting collaboration of the Soviet Union and western democracy despite the existence of ideological discord." There the worldwide conflict between east and west has reached its most dangerous stage; all accounts show that large scale civil war is raging.

In London a Greek Embassy spokesman characterizes the fighting as "an invasion by subversive elements from Albania and Yugoslavia with the connivance of the two governments." The British government lends support to this view.

There is no charge that the Soviet government is directly responsible for this tragic situation. The Soviet government doubtless would point out that Yugoslavia, and Albania are independent nations; the Tito and Hoxha regimes disclaim any responsibility for the turmoil along Greece's northern frontiers. But the fact remains that outside Russia and the Russian zone of domination—which includes Yugoslavia and Albania—the belief is almost general that word from the Kremlin could alter the direction of the developments that point toward ever spreading conflict.

Russians Beaten Twice

The Russians have been beaten in two efforts in the United Nations Security Council to pin the blame for this situation on Greece and the British forces still in the country.

A long-drawn and clamorous battle arising from the Soviet Ukraine's attempt to have the council take action against the Greeks and British as a threat to peace ended in defeat for the Slavic bloc.

Soviet Delegate Andrei Gromyko's effort to compel Britain to report on the strength of her forces in Greece (and the United States to do likewise concerning its forces in China) was thrown out. In the course of this conflict Gromyko killed, by his veto, an American proposal, which had the backing of the overwhelming majority of the council, for an investigation of the whole Greek border situation.

The need for such an impartial study seems to most observers to be pressing; only by some such measure can the world get an ordered account of the conflicting charges and countercharges that come from Athens, Belgrade, Tirana and Moscow. Trygve Lie, secretary general of the United Nations, has declared that he still may undertake such a study on his own responsibility.

Secret Document Of Japs Disclosed

Washington, Sept. 26 (AP)—A German secret document published by the state department disclosed today that Japan was hoping to make peace between Germany and Russia at the very moment in 1943 when Hitler was urging Japan to attack the Soviet Union.

The document also offered new confirmation for the idea that Germany hoped by conquering all western Russia to link forces with her eastern partner once Japan had accomplished the planned conquest of India.

The new document, one of 400 tons of German official papers captured by the American army, is published in the official state department bulletin.

It is the German account of a conference between Foreign Minister Ribbentrop, Japanese Ambassador Oshima and Major General Okamoto in May, 1943, at the time when the American and British forces were readying their offensives from North Africa into southern France.

Woman Critical After Stabbing

Philadelphia, Sept. 26 (AP)—A young woman was stabbed three times early today by an army veteran detective said she had just ordered never to see her again.

Screams of Mrs. Florence Logan, 31, brought her brother, Louis Urso, running out of the house to her assistance. He overtook the assailant in a half block chase, grappled with him and rolled fighting to the ground. The man escaped after Urso had been slashed on the hand.

At a hospital, Mrs. Logan was reported in critical condition from loss of blood.

Cancer Society To Spend $240,000 In Pa.

Harrisburg, Sept. 26 (AP)—The Pennsylvania chapter of the American Cancer society will spend $240,000 to combat the disease in this state.

Dr. Zoe Allison Johnston, Pittsburgh, state president of the society said the money will be used on an intensive school education program and on service projects.

He said the purpose of the program was "to get people to recognize early symptoms of cancer and secure medical treatment in time."

HOUSE PROBE CONTINUES TO STUDY PROFITS

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

Washington, Sept. 26 (AP)—The House Merchant Marine committee turned its attention from Henry J. Kaiser today to the war profits of other merchant shipbuilders.

Among the firms awaiting scrutiny is the St. Johns River Shipbuilding Corp. of Florida which, the Maritime Commission reported to the committee, ran a $600 capital investment into estimated profits of $2,080,000.

But the commission's figures, as assailed by Kaiser and other witnesses as "misleading" and "ridiculous," fast were becoming the target of committee criticism. As a result Chairman Bland (D-Va.) announced that the current phase of the hearings will conclude tomorrow with testimony from commission officials. No further sessions are planned until after the November 5 elections.

Figures "Unfair"

Rep. Keogh (D-NY) and Rep. Herter (R-Mass) said they believed the committee should require either the Maritime Commission or the Internal Revenue Bureau to present more up-to-date figures reflecting profits after taxes, renegotiation and payment by contractors of non-reimbursable expenses.

The Maritime Commission figures, Keogh told reporters, apparently are "unfair" because, making no allowance for deductions, they compute profits on the basis of capital investment without considering the value of the services performed.

Herter said he believes the committee needs figures reflecting ultimate net profits before it can make a fair conclusion as to whether any of the earnings now under investigation were excessive.

The Maritime Commission figures, he said, "don't tell the whole story, which is what the committee wants." Those figures show that the 19 companies under scrutiny turned $22,979,275 of capital shipyard investment into estimated aggregate profits of $356,006,612.

INSANITY PLEA IN LONDON CASE

London, Sept. 26 (AP)—Counsel for Neville George Cleveley Heath pleaded with the jury today to find the handsome young flier "guilty of murder but insane" in the sadistic slaying of Mrs. Margery Gardner, attractive 33-year-old film extra.

The trial was expected to end this afternoon after two and one half days of sensational testimony that the former RAF pilot cruelly beat, tortured and mutilated Mrs. Gardner. If he is acquitted in this trial he will face another for the mutilation murder of 21-year-old Doreen Marshall, a former WREN.

Two prison doctors testified today against the defense contention that Heath was morally insane. Both said the 29-year-old flier was not insane, but described him as a psychopathic personality.

One of the doctors said Heath was "a person who does what he feels like doing at the moment, without any thought of the consequences. That is not a disease of the mind; it is a matter of abnormal character."

A psychiatrist summoned by the defense testified yesterday that Heath was "certifiable as a moral defective."

Senior Defense Counsel J. D. Casswell said "there is no one who would think for one moment that Heath is the sort of man who could possibly be left at large," but added that "the life led by young armen was just the sort that might bring to the surface a defect of the reason that had been hidden hitherto."

Citizenship was extended to all Indians in the United States by an act of Congress in 1924.

Army Slaps Claim On Fourth Of Vanishing Meat Supply As Storm Mounts

ADMINISTRATION SPLIT ON ISSUE OF PRICE LIDS

Washington, Sept. 26 (AP)—The army slapped a claim today on a fourth of all meat turned out by federally-inspected slaughterers as the pre-election storm over bare butcher counters mounted in intensity.

With the administration already split over the issue of keeping price lids on the rapidly vanishing commodity, top Democratic party chiefs assembled here for a huddle that appeared certain to take note of the whole situation.

The congressional elections are just 40 days off.

Serve Priority Papers

But the army showed no disposition to await possible action by any other branch of the government.

Reporting that its "visible supply of meat is less than a month's requirement," the army last night served priority papers on all packers operating under federal inspection ordering them to set aside 25 per cent of their total output for the armed services, the war shipping administration and veterans hospitals.

While reminding that "punitive action" awaits those who violate the set-aside orders, the army announcement left unanswered whether its goal of 60,000,000 pounds of meat a month could be achieved. "Meat slaughter is descending to the vanishing point," it declared. The political storm broke in earnest yesterday after House Democratic Leader McCormack of Massachusetts demanded in a telegram to Price Chief Paul Porter that OPA suspend control over meat and other scarce food products so "our hospitals and our citizens" can have enough to eat.

Republican National Chairman Carroll Reece, branding McCormack's action as "cheap politics," noted in a statement that the 60-day period proposed would carry the suspension just past the November 5 elections.

Declaring the Massachusetts

SIGHT SEEING—Prince Amir Faisal (right) of Saudi Arabia, points out to his son, Prince Mahomed, 7, some of the sights of London from their apartment after the prince arrived in the British capital to attend the Palestine conference.

Democrat is trying "to kid the voters," Reece added that if the administration "had listened to Republican advice during the last session of Congress such chicanery as Mr. McCormack now proposes would be unnecessary."

Attacks System

Reece called the control system "unworkable." McCormack was a prime battler for the administration during the long house fight over extending, and then reviving, OPA.

Since then administration emphasis has been on the necessity of keeping controls over food and other scarce items.

Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson, who in a radio speech from Albuquerque Tuesday night said he considered present price ceilings high enough to give farmers a fair return on their meat, promised in a statement last night that he will act promptly on any formal petition to remove controls. "But," he added, "if one of the showing that the commodity is not in short supply, such a finding might be difficult to justify, as the present outcry for more meat would indicate."

Under the price control law, only OPA advisory committees may petition for decontrol—a step now being arranged by Chairman Roscoe I. Haynie of the beef industry committee.

Taking note of McCormack's call for a 60-day suspension of ceilings, Haynie told a reporter such action "would not bring orderly marketing or production."

"The only solution to the present meat shortages," he added, "is complete and permanent decontrol."

FIRE THREAT ENDED

Kane, Pa., Sept. 26 (AP)—A two-inch rainfall here in the last two days has erased the threat of forest and brush land fires in the area, forestry officials said today.

GOP WOMEN ARE CONFIDENT OF FALL VICTORY

Philadelphia, Sept. 26 (AP)—The National Federation of Women's Republican clubs opened its two-day biennial convention today with GOP leaders confident of victory in the November elections.

Carroll Reece, chairman of the Republican National committee, foresaw a nationwide swing to the Republican party because of present "controls, confusion and corruption" within Democratic ranks.

Reece said in an interview yesterday he was "taking for granted" the election of Gov. Edward Martin over Democrat Joseph F. Guffey for the U. S. Senate. In addition, Reece said "we unquestionably will gain control of the next House. We expect to pick up not less than 50 seats."

Chance To Win Senate

And, continued Reece, "we have an excellent chance of winning control of the Senate. We feel confident of winning 11 or 12 Senate seats and possibly three or four more."

Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee told a dinner meeting of the Metropolitan Philadelphia Finance committee the coming campaign would be one between "the radicals and the anti-radicals."

"We feel there is no question about Gov. Martin's election," Reece said. "And we feel the same way about Mr. Duff and the rest of the Republican ticket."

Warned About Overconfidence

The Republican national chairman also predicted the GOP would pick up seven or eight congressional seats in Pennsylvania—four of them in Philadelphia which has six districts.

But in spite of the confidence expressed by other Republicans, Governor Martin, a retired major-general, said "elections, like battles, are lost by the over-confidence of those who take part in them."

Duff too cautioned against overconfidence. He said an army of Political Action Committee (PAC) workers was carrying the Democratic campaign to every home, farm and factory in every community in the state.

Effingham B. Morris, Jr., chairman of the Metropolitan Finance committee who said the cost of the November campaign would be high, announced the quota for Philadel-

VEILED THREATS OF DESTRUCTION

There is a veiled threat in many public announcements pertaining to health. We are led to believe that unless we take certain pills, absorb certain decoctions, eat certain foods, use certain tooth cleansers, drench ourselves with certain antiseptics, we are bound for utter destruction. Don't worry too much about your health. Cultivate regular habits, observe the principles of hygiene, and practice moderation. If you do become ill, there is but one refuge... your family physician. On every occasion when you do not feel up to normal, consult a licensed M.D. As a further safeguard, bring his prescriptions to us to be filled. We are prescription specialists.

DECIDE TODAY ABOUT ATOMIC ENERGY PLANS

By FRANCIS W. CARPENTER

Lake Success, N. Y., Sept. 26 (AP)—Scientists of the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission were ready for a showdown vote today on their report on atomic energy controls, with Soviet Russia holding the key to a unanimous vote.

The scientific and technical committee of the commission, made up of scientists from each of the 12 nations on the commission, was summoned to meet in secret session at the United Nations headquarters here at 3 p.m. E.D.T.

Council Prepares Report
Members of the committee were represented as agreed that some final action must be taken on the report, which was adopted after 18 meetings, mostly in August, and which has been awaiting the formal approval of Soviet Russia for about three weeks.

Meanwhile, the U. N. Security Council, resting after strenuous battles over membership, the Ukrainian-Greek case and the Russian demand for information on troop dispositions, turned to the comparatively simple matter of its report to the general assembly, which meets in New York city on October 23. The council scheduled a closed meeting for 10:30 a.m., E.S.T., in United Nations offices in downtown Manhattan.

The report was said to deal with broad measures of control needed to harness effectively atomic energy. It was reported as making no attempt to resolve the differences between the United States and Russian plans for atomic energy control.

YOUNG SLAYER CONFESSES TO 'URGE TO KILL'

Bryan, O., Sept. 26 (AP)—

Sheriff Norman A. Barnes said he would file a murder charge today against a Bryan youth who confessed "an urge to kill" led him to choke and stab to death Emily Abernathy, 30, city librarian, in the library basement here last Thursday night.

Barnes reported that the youth, James Robert Engle, 21, a former Bryan high school student and son of an auto supply store manager, signed a confession last night that he "just wanted to kill" the attractive blonde librarian to satisfy "an urge to kill" he first got in England as a U. S. sailor.

Miss Abernathy's body was found lying between blood-spattered bookshelves, punctured with 23 stab wounds.

Engle gave Charles G. Stahl, Williams county prosecutor, a large-bladed penknife during the confession and identified it as the weapon used, Stahl reported.

"I stabbed her 25 times or more—I their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John West. Mr. and Mrs. West recently purchased the Charles Fuss farm.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brightbill, of Bedford, are visiting Dr. and Mrs. Luther Beagle.

John Walber of Tarrytown, N. Y., visited recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Frailey.

Mrs. Potter, of Baltimore, is visiting Miss Rhoda Gillelan at her summer home at Friends Creek farm.

Miss Doris Peppier spent Monday in Harrisburg.

Those from Emmitsburg who attended the funeral of Mrs. Laura Roddy on Monday at Gettysburg were Miss Louise Sebald, Miss Anne Codori, Mrs. C. G. Frailey and Frank, don't really know how many times,"

Stahl said the confession stated.

Engle said in his statement, Stahl reported, that he went to the library "to look for magazines" and after seeing Miss Abernathy "all alone" went for a walk, returned and had her take him to the basement to look at newspapers.

"Looked Like Mad Dog"

The lights were out when he followed Miss Abernathy to the basement "with the idea of killing this woman," Stahl said the statement related, but "something stopped me."

"Later she came down and told me it was time to go. I grabbed her and she screamed. I put my hand over her mouth and she screamed and screamed. I knocked her down and beat her with my fist and kicked her."

After leaving the library, Engle's statement said, he washed the blood from his hands and clothing at a pump in Garver park. He stopped at a service station on his way back to town, "looked at myself in a mirror there and saw that I looked like a mad dog," the statement related.

Roddy and Miss Adeline Roddy, of Thurmont, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hays entertained at dinner on Sunday Miss Grace Rowe and Mrs. George Storz and daughter, Eloise, all of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. D. L. Beagle entertained at bridge on Friday evening.

CITY REVENUES UP FOR STUDY

Harrisburg, Sept. 26 (AP)—The question of increased revenues for municipalities was expected today to be foremost in discussions of city officials at the 47th annual convention of the league of third class cities opening here tomorrow.

Walter E. Greenwood, of Coatesville, league president, said today the organization probably will reiterate its demand, first made last year, for a share in the two-cent package levy on cigarettes if the emergency tax is continued by the 1947 Legislature.

"There will also be a discussion of the New York plan for sharing state revenues with municipalities," Greenwood added, explaining that under that system New York retains 55 per cent of state revenues except motor vehicle taxes and turns back the remainder to municipalities.

"If the New York plan were adopted in Pennsylvania, a city the size

Chapter 14

"Richard spent a lot of time at the Gold Mine Club and he wasn't the kind of person to over-look opportunities to get money. If he'd happened to find out some guilty secret of Morrissey's he'd probably have tried to make use of it, since obviously he was capable of blackmail. Unless he knew something of that kind I shouldn't think he'd have dared to raise that check."

"Now we're getting somewhere," Martin said.

"To return to the subject of blackmail, I'd appreciate a statement from you — given in private if you prefer — telling exactly what Searle threatened to reveal about you if he was arrested. It won't go any further unless it turns out to be essential to our case."

"Richard and I became quite friendly a couple of years ago, before he'd gone through all his money and started getting into serious scrapes. People looked on him as a bit wild and irresponsible rather than crooked — something he'd grow out of in time — and that's what I thought when I said I'd marry him."

"The real break came after the death of Leona Mitchell, when I heard the gossip and remembered little incidents that seemed to prove what they were saying about Richard. I wouldn't see him after that, but I answered a couple of his letters and I don't doubt that some of the things I wrote might be construed as the reproaches of an innocent maiden who had loved not wisely but too well."

"There was nothing put down in so many words to that effect, of course?"

"Of course not. Next to myself, no one knew better than Richard that it wasn't so."

"I was only thinking that someone might have wanted to get the letters from Searle to sell to you or your father," Cloud said. "You see, we searched Searle's apartment without finding a single letter or anything else to connect you with him."

Martin said, "I like the idea about someone else wanting to take over Searle's blackmail setup. Several people knew that Ennis was willing to pay for whatever Searle possessed and it would be reasonable to suppose he'd pay one man as soon as another. A chiseler wouldn't even have to know what was in the letters, but only that they were valuable."

"You're doing all right," Cloud said. "A few minutes ago I had one suspect locked up safe and sound, and now you're trying to give me seven."

Martin counted on his fingers. "Seven? A hundred people may have known of the situation before the killing, but we're sure of Barbara and her father, Clarabelle, Doran, Morrissey and, toward the last, Dexter. They make a round half-dozen by my arithmetic."

"Such modesty," Cloud said. "Always dodging the limelight, aren't you, King?"

That was all. Cloud had no more questions and Barbara seemed anxious to get away. Leaving the station house with her Martin felt that his role thus far had been anything but heroic and stood in need of justification.

"I've done some first-class bungling," he began tentatively.

She nodded. "I'd have warned you if you'd given me a chance, but it wouldn't have done any good. You'd have gone right ahead with your own ideas."

"My only idea was to spare you unpleasantness."

"Don't think I'm not appreciative. In a way I'm highly complimented that you'd go to such desperate lengths for me. What I can't understand is your vehement and distinctly uncomplimentary insistence on everybody understanding that you aren't fascinated with me — even though you aren't."

He took her arm as they crossed the street and continued to hold it when they reached the other side.

"I should have been scared stiff about the fix I was in on Searle's account," he said, "but I wasn't, because I was busy thinking about you. I wanted to kiss you that night."

Chritzman's JEWELER
Gettysburg, Penna.

The reason I didn't was that always before, when I was out with a girl and felt like kissing her, I did. What I mean is, you didn't seem like just another girl."

She was silent while they walked half a block. She said finally, "You'd be furious, wouldn't you, if you thought I tried deliberately to make you say something like that?"

"I might be."

"It isn't quite true. But I did want to see how close you'd come to — well, a declaration of love. And . . ."

"And what?"

"Well, I don't happen to be in love or on the verge of it. I don't want to be or to play at being. I think I'm a little sorry I brought up the subject. And now, Martin, I'm anxious to get home. Now that I've seen Cloud I'll have to talk things over with Dad before the police do, and he'll take some handling. Will you please get me a taxi?"

"Sure."

He stood on the curb and searched the street with stony eyes. The anger Barbara had anticipated was burning inside him, but he was determined to smother it. A cab drew up.

"Can I take you home?"

"There's no need."

"He travels the fastest who travels alone," he quoted, opening the door of the cab. "And riding with me is a risky business, as you found out the other morning. Be gentle but firm with your father."

On the running board she turned and, before he knew her intention, kissed him on the lips. It was over in a split second, and then she was sitting in the cab, not looking at him, calmly telling the chauffeur her destination. She did not say good-

AFL COUNCIL DECLINES TO BACK SLATE

Harrisburg, Sept. 26 (AP)—The executive council of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor (AFL), for the first time in its history, has declined to endorse state-wide candidates at the November election.

President James L. McDevitt said the council met yesterday and unanimously voted to remain neutral in this year's campaign.

Endorsement of congressional and legislative candidates was left up to the central labor unions in the respective districts in another resolution adopted by the 15 man council.

Oppose Gross

McDevitt said however, that the federation has already come out against the reelection of two Republican congressmen—Chester H. Gross, of the 21st district, and Richard Simpson, of the 17th district.

districts," declared McDevitt.

The federation's decision to remain neutral in the election marks a departure from its previous stand of endorsing Democratic candidates annually since 1935. Prior to that date the federation usually backed the Republican ticket.

Advised of the federation's action while he was attending a Democratic dinner here last night, U. S. Senator Joseph P. Guffey, Democratic candidate for re-election, declined to comment.

John S. Rice, Democratic candidate for governor, said "I wouldn't want to comment on that until I have a chance to read the complete statement of the federation."

RECORD ENROLLMENT

Meadville, Pa., Sept. 26—A record enrollment of 1,066—topping by 225 the all-time high of 1940-41—was reported by Allegheny college today. Of the 598 male students, 450 are veterans.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 26 (AP)—Frank Haney, a bondsman, was indicted by the Allegheny county grand jury Tuesday on a charge of conspiracy to defraud. Haney was arrested after he allegedly charged a Logan's Ferry, Pa., man $450 for a $1,000 bond.

Also indicted were Haney's cousin, Fred Haney, and Ollie H. Moran, Haney's father-in-law, a Pittsburgh policeman. All three defendants are free under $1,000 bail.

Brezger shouted for help and the man fled.

TOO MANY REPEATERS

Washington, Sept. 26 (AP)—The Veterans Administration expressed concern today over the growing number of "repeaters" on the unemployment compensation rolls. As of July 31, the agency disclosed, a total of 1,507,364 veterans of World War II had returned to the rolls after having once left them, either to accept jobs or for other reasons.

TOBEY'S GETTYSBURG

SEEK CAUSE OF HEAVY CLAIMS FOR VETS' PAY

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Sept. 26 (AP) — Why are so many veterans drawing government unemployment pay for 20 weeks or more?

The Veterans Administration (VA) is trying to find out. It has asked the states for a report, giving the reasons.

Results of that report will not be known for several weeks.

Now 1,600,000 veterans weekly are drawing government unemployment pay, called readjustment allowance. Of that number:

About 770,000 have been getting it from one to nine weeks.

About 400,000 have been getting it from 10 to 19 weeks.

And about 430,000 have been getting it anywhere from 20 to 52 weeks.

Some Are Stalling

The average veteran, according to

VA, takes eight to 10 weeks to get a job, after he starts looking for one.

Why then should some take 20 to 52 weeks?

Here is an unofficial explanation given at VA while it awaits the report from the states:

Some veterans are stalling. They're drawing the money without any effort to get work.

More than half the veterans went into military service so young they had not acquired any civilian skill that would make a living for them. So they're not equipped now to fit easily into civilian jobs.

Need Readjustment

Some can't get the kind of job they want because of current labor disputes and shortages of materials that cut down the number of men wanted.

One VA official said: "A lot of these kids need a readjustment to civilian living. Some of them are saying: 'Why should I try to get a job when I can get $20 a week tax free from the government?'"

Big Cost to Uncle Sam

Unemployment pay to a veteran is $20 weekly. The number of weeks he can get such pay depends upon the length of his service.

Kane, Pa., Sept. 26 (AP)—McKean County Coroner Elmer Beatty said the body of Roy W. Hunt, 48, of Rixford, was found Tuesday between the tracks of the Pittsburgh, Shawmut and Northern railroad, a half mile from Kasson. Beatty said the man had apparently fallen off a train.

Anyone with 9½ months' service or more can get up to 52 weeks of unemployment pay, the limit.

So some may be entitled to only a few weeks' pay, some to the limit.

The peak for unemployment pay to veterans was reached in June when 1,800,000 were drawing it. That figure has tapered down to the present 1,600,000, which has been standing fairly steady, week after week.

The VA has asked the states to tighten up on handing out this money. But it still wants a veteran, who really is looking for a job, to have plenty of time to find one.

VA officials say they want the money to go only to veterans who want work.

So far the government has paid out more than $1,225,000,000 in unemployment pay.

LOW AUGUST CHICK HATCH SETS RECORD

Harrisburg, Sept. 26 (AP)—Only 980,000 baby chicks were hatched in Pennsylvania during August for one of the lowest production marks ever known for that month, the Department of Agriculture reported today.

This compared with 4,000,000 chicks hatched in the corresponding month in 1945 and with the monthly average of 2,562,000 for the years 1940 to 1944.

According to hatcherymen, advance chick orders as of September 1 were only about 10 per cent of what they were a year ago.

Chick production in Pennsylvania for the first eight months of this year—reported at 55,410,000—was also down 14,000,000 from the production for the comparable period of 1945.

The decline, department spokesman explained, was due to the scarcity and high cost of feed and labor which tended to reduce the size of farm flocks, and the fact that prices received for eggs and poultry meat averaged less than they did a year ago.

Beans Until Frost

Because of recent weather conditions, the Department of Agriculture says black rot has developed in some late plantings of tomatoes throughout the state, particularly in the eastern counties.

Supplies of snap beans are tapering off but will continue until the first killing frost. Beet supplies are expected to be heavy soon. Early cabbage is about over and fall cabbage is moving to markets in volume, but heads are reported rather small due to cool weather and lack of rain.

The department added that quite a few late plantings of sweet corn may not mature and that celery was hit by lack of rain. Cucumbers were a light crop in all areas.

More Timothy Seed

Milk production on Pennsylvania farms during August was only one per cent below the 1945 all-time August record, indicating this fall's production may be better than was previously expected.

The 465,000,000 pounds of milk produced in August compared with the record 471,000,000 pounds for the same month in 1945 and 476,000,000 pounds produced in July of this year.

Production of Timothy seed on Pennsylvania farms this year is on the increase, with 20,000 bushels of thrasher-run seed expected to be realized, as against 14,300 bushels in 1945.

The population of Texas increased 287 per cent between 1890 and 1940.
